AUGUST 28, 1944

SOUVENIR POSTAL CARD

Printed Postal Card covered with various stamp issues during the Japanese Occupation. The August 28, 1944 date coincides with the first day of issue of the second Official issue. Card produced by Pablo M Espiridion, and addressed to the PPC (handstamp address).

Handwritten text stating "Stamp Collecting is not only a hobby but also an art. An art is something that fills the soul with a beautiful feeling – a sense of appreciation for things beautiful and memories so sweet to be forgotten – as for instance, a rhapsody in stamps and autographs of beautiful women." Signed Rizalino D. Arispia Sr (secret acronym abbreviated as: Rizal Declares a Revolution in Stamped Paper Is a Silent Rebellion).
