PPC DONATES P1,062.50 TO RIZAL MEMORIAL FUND

FLASH! To all Kasamas who answered the PPC call for donations to the Jose Rizal Memorial Fund by donating lots at the Benefit Auction sponsored by our Club with the collaboration of the Society of Philatelic Rizalists (PPC Chapter 2) as well as to those who sent in cash donations, the Philippine Philatelic Club is mighty grateful for their material support. Total donations, at the final count, amounted to P1,062.50. Heading the list of donors in this patriotic movement is Kasama "Mike" Goldenberg, Executive Adviser of the PPC and an ardent Rizalist simultaneously, and whose father incidentally was a contemporary of Rizal. As a token of gratitude and as a matter of acknowledgment to the Pee-pee-see philatelic patrioteers who had contributed in this patriotic cause, a list of the donors and their respective donations are given on the reverse of this card.

POSTSCRAPARIUM: A Filipino ex-USAFFE officer tells us the other day that "Patriotism is an expensive hobby." To which we replied, "A stamp collector can leave something to posterity."—PME.
