ACCENT on AUCTIONS

FLASH! At the regular business meeting of the PPC on July 16, it was unanimously decided to hold our Auctions every Sunday and Tuesday. Hence, no more dates to worry about.

POSTSCRAPARIUM: Stamps of today may be the gems of philately tomorrow. Incidentally, did you send already your advice for reservations for any future issues to Kasama Protomartir, Chairman, Committee on New Issue Service of the PPC?...If not, better do it now, lest you forget after digesting the PPC Flashes on the reverse of this card.—PME.

PHILIPPINE PHILATELIC CLUB... FOR BETTER PHILATELY

PPC FLASHES

No. 6

Greetings! Kasama—
Rainy days are here again and we need some reading matter to keep us warm, as for instance—
NEWS vs. FLASH: When a dog bites a man that's not news; and when a stamp-bug bites a man that's a chicken-feed news; but, when a stamp collector mortgages his house for 5,000 pesos just to buy 4 old Philippine stamps (Scott No. 1 to 4), that's a PPC flash! Case in point is Kasama H, who mortgaged his house for 5,000 bucks just to buy the stamps in question from Kasama A.
CASH & CARRY: July 14 saw the birth of the Philippine Philatelic Dealers' Association, which some of the big boys in the stamp trade organized on that day. Elected as officers of the PPD were: Severino Luna, president; Emilio Carceller, vice-president; Antonio Gutierrez, secretary; Y. S. Chong, treasurer; Henry Kraemer, chairman, Reservation Committee; Antonio Franco, chairman, Purchase Committee; and E. Carceller, chairman, Auction Committee. Incidentally, all of them are sunshine members of the PPC.

ORCHIDS vs. RAZZBERRIES: Kasama Jacoby braved the heavy rain on July 11, just to drop at our Club and presented some philatelic orchids to the PPC Flashes. Let it be mentioned, too, that on July 4, Kasama Hellmann showered the PPC Flashes with a "bayong" of constructive razzberries.

DONORS & DONATIONS: Kasama Fernando Zobel donated several copies of philatelic literature to the PPC library on July 10, for young and old Kasamas to browse about at our Club any time. And then, there's Kasama Leon Goldenberg, vice-proxy of the PPC, who donated a brand-new hammer for our Club auctions...Then, too, there's Kasama Jose Ma. Calero, who donated two complete sets of chess to our Club for members to stage "battles of wits," when they have moments to relax. Jose Mari, incidentally, is the designer of the PPC official seal, remember? greeting each fellow member was an original idea conceived by our Executive Adviser, Mike Goldenberg...Meanwhile, at the time of writing, our Club has 300 members. Which indicates the PPC is going places.

LECTURES & LECTURERS: If you missed the instructive and very interesting lecture of Kasama Dr. Jesus Celis last Sunday, July, 16 on "The Cultural Value of Stamps," don't forget Kasama Fernando Zobel's lecture on "The Different Processes of Printing Stamps," scheduled for next month, August 20. A lecture given at the PPC is a philatelic education itself, and the PPC is philatelically yours for better philately.

TRIVIA: Stamps of the 2¢ Rizal (green) deleted with black bars are no longer sold at the Manila Post Office as stocks of ditto were exhausted two weeks ago...The 5¢ K.P. with the overprint "Commonwealth" (small type) deleted, which were sold out at the Manila Post Office sometime ago, were re-issued by the MPO on July 11...The PPC auction last Sunday, July 16, broke all previous records...For lack of space in the PPC FLASHES, we cannot convey to you a lot of our Club's activities. However, if you want to get a load of them every-now-and-then, just drop at the PPC quarters at the Goldenberg Bldg., where every Kasama is welcome all the time.

Philatelically yours,
PABLO M. ESPERIDION
Secretary
