

The most unusual military marking from the Philippines was an undated one used at Military Station No.4 on Cebu in March and April 1899. It was used in conjunction with a temporary cds transferred from Manila but with the station number "1" excised. Above examples on outbound and inbound mail.