

Special Flights from the Philippines (1935-36)

There were various one-off flights from the Philippines. Mail carried on these flights was philatelic. Many of the covers in this section then proceeded in the normal mail system.

British Royal Air Corps Survey Flight

These letters were carried on a survey flight from Manila to Singapore with a stop at Labuan.

From Singapore the upper cover went by air, while the lower cover went onwards by sea.
