

FELIX Y EMMANUEL ULLMANN
31, Escolta, 31

Ullmann's Store was a popular retail shop of imported goods during Rizal's time located in Escolta near Avenida. During his exile in Dapitan, Rizal requested his family to buy him a bicycle. In his Jan. 15, 1896 letter, Rizal wrote, referring to his request: "At Ullmann's they sell new and good ones at 175 pesos, but I want one that is less expensive, sturdy, second-hand, for use in these very rough places ..."
