

US President Dwight D. Eisenhower's parade along Avenida on June 14, 1960 marked his state visit to the Philippines. The following day, Eisenhower laid a wreath at the Rizal Monument in Luneta. Eisenhower served with the US Military Mission in the Philippines from 1935 to 1940.