

CM Recto Avenue, formerly called Azacarraga Street, intersects Avenida. The street's name is a tribute to foremost nationalist Senator Claro M. Recto, who authored the 1956 "Rizal Law" that mandates all educational institutions to offer courses about Jose Rizal.