

Bazar Siglo XX on Azcarraga Street, a major intersection along Avenida, was a chain of retail stores founded by Teodoro Yangco, whose father, Luis, funded the Katipunan and the Philippine Revolution. Together with Rizal's brother, Paciano, the generous philanthropist Teodoro Yangco was a member of the commission which supervised the construction of the Rizal Monument in Luneta.