

Manila Grand Opera House, located on Doroteo Jose Street corner Avenida, was the site of the inauguration of the First Philippine Assembly on Oct. 16, 1907 under the leadership of Speaker Sergio Osmeña. In his youth, President Osmeña was said to have been tutored on piano lessons by Rizal's widow, Josephine Bracken.