

Kalayan 1943 stamps depict the symbolic "Inang Malaya" with the Rizal Monument as background, designed by a known Rizalist, Guillermo Tolentino. This first day of issue cover was sent by Dr. Agustin Liboro who helped prepare medicine for Capas concentration camp's prisoners during the Death March in 1942. According to his diary, "they did not know how they could send medicines, the Japanese prohibited sending medicines to war prisoners". Prisoners of war under Japanese Army were sent to various concentration camps in the country, including the Old Bilibid Prison along Avenida.
