BAGUIO CONFERENCE OF 1950

A seed is being planted, and whether or not it shall be here in the season of its flowering is not important. What is important is that the tree will provide shade and shelter for those that will come after

PEACE TIME

On May 26, 1950, President Elpidio Quirino convenes the “Baguio Conference of the Asia-Pacific Leaders”. It resolves the creation of a permanent regional mechanism to promote peace and stability in the Asian region.

The Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) takes its roots from the 1950 Baguio Conference.
