

The Cory Administration, the Republic Act 6963, 1992, creating the Philippine Postal Corporation.

The demise of President Corazon Aquino paves the way for his son, Benigno “PNoy” Aquino III, to become the 15th President of the Republic in 2010.

His winning the popular vote is seen as the Filipinos' overwhelming gratitude to his mother, the nation's most beloved "tita Cory".

The Cory Administration enacted the Republic Act No. 735 on April 2, 1992, creating the Philippine Postal Corporation.

