First Air Mail
On April 5, 1926, Spanish aviators Joaquin Loriga and Eduardo Gallarza embarked on a flight from Madrid to Manila. On May 11, they landed in Aparri, flew to Manila on May 13 carrying mails, marking the first air mail flight in the Philippines.

Airmail Madrid-Manila 1926

Forgery with inverted overprint